

Sachs Sax Caplan welcomes Moore

Sachs Sax Caplan welcomes Albert Burton Moore to the firm's St. Lucie West office.

Moore practices in the areas of community associations, foreclosures, land use and government law. Most recently, he was senior partner with Bruhn & Moore, Attorneys at Law, P.A. in St. Lucie County. He is a former traffic hearing officer with St. Lucie and Martin counties and served as a full-time General Master for the 19th Judicial Circuit. He has served as an adjunct instructor of legal studies at Indian River State College.

A Port St. Lucie resident, he has been on the St. Lucie County Planning & Zoning Board and the Port St. Lucie Economic Growth Team. He is a former Supreme Court Certified Circuit and County Civil Mediator.

Albert Moore

Sachs Sax Caplan is a full-service law firm with offices in Boca Raton and Tallahassee. Practice areas include government relations, corporate, community association law, real estate and land use, commercial litigation, estate planning, and family law. For more information, visit www.ssclawfirm.com.

Reich and Mancini to open Stuart office

The law firm of Reich and Mancini, P.A., practicing personal injury, workers' compensation, social security disability and criminal defense with more than 60 years of combined experience will open a second office at 320 SE Federal Highway, near downtown Stuart.

Currently, the firm is based in St. Lucie West, providing services throughout the Treasure Coast and Okeechobee County.

Janine Landolina of Treasure Commercial Real Estate, Inc. brokered the deal.

FOR THE EVENT OF A LIFETIME,
CHOOSE A SETTING YOU'LL NEVER FORGET

With an open floor plan comfortably seating 300 guests and a more intimate room for smaller parties and events, The Pelican Yacht Club can provide a superb location for your special event. Our Classically Trained kitchen and event management staff will assist you in creating a unique celebration. The Pelican Yacht Club is available for Corporate Meetings, Seminars, Client Appreciation and Employee Holiday Parties as well as Charity Events and Fundraisers. We are happy to meet with you to discuss the nature and vision of your event!